Members need to contact CME before sending a wire to obtain the correct wiring information to avoid the fee. ACH & WIRE TRANSFERS - This agreement is subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code - Funds Transfers as adopted in the state in which you have your account with us, or as adopted in New York if that state has not adopted UCC 4A. If you originate a fund transfer for which Fedwire is used, and you identify by name and number a beneficiary financial institution, an intermediary financial institution or beneficiary, we and every receiving or beneficiary financial institution may rely on the identifying number to make payment. We may rely on the number even if it identifies a financial institution, person or account other than the one named. You agree to be bound by automated clearinghouse association rules. These rules provide, among other things, that payments made to you, or originated by you, are provisional until final settlement is made through a Federal Reserve Bank, or payment is otherwise made as provided in Article 4A-403(a) of the Uniform Commercial Code. If we receive a credit to an account you have with us by wire or ACH, we are not required to give you any notice of the payment order or credit. All fees are subject to change. To find out if anything has changed contact CME at 614.224.8890, write us at 365 S. 4th St., Columbus, Ohio 43215, or email info@cmefcu.org. Service Charges effective 2/12/18.
